Dear Sir/Madam,

Greetings from Raj Kumar Goel Institute of Technology (RKGIT), Ghaziabad!

The Raj Kumar Goel Institute of Technology (RKGIT), founded in the year 2000 in Ghaziabad, Uttar Pradesh, is a premier self-financed technical institution that holds a NAAC "A" Accreditation. It is affiliated with Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam Technical University, Lucknow and is recognized by the AICTE. The institution is situated on a 27-acre campus and provides a combination of academic excellence, state of the art infrastructure, and a vigorous culture of innovation and research. With a dedication to cultivating technically proficient and socially responsible professionals, RKGIT offers both undergraduate and postgraduate programs in Engineering, Management, MCA and Pharmacy currently serving over 6000 students.

We are pleased to invite your esteemed institution to participate in NexGen Hack, a national-level 36-hour hackathon scheduled from September 4th to 6th, 2025, at the RKGIT campus in Ghaziabad. NexGen Hack is an initiative aimed at promoting innovation, problem-solving and collaborative learning among the brightest minds in engineering, technology and related fields across India. The hackathon will provide a dynamic platform for students to tackle real-world challenges, ideate, and prototype under the guidance of industry experts and academic leaders.
